Statement/Certification of Parent/Guardian: By signing below, I understand that The Instrument Exchange is based on the honor system and that the purpose of The Instrument Exchange is to provide children who (or whose family/legal guardian) could not otherwise afford it with an instrument in good repair for a two-year period. I understand that there may be a waiting period for my child's preferred instrument or that such an instrument may not be available at all. I understand that there will be a one-year check-in. I understand that it shall be our responsibility to provide repairs needed during the two-year period, and that it shall be our responsibility to provide strings for string instruments and reeds for reed instruments. I understand that The Instrument Exchange is not a teaching facility and that it shall be our responsibility to locate instruction, if desired. I agree to return the instrument promptly at the end of the two-year period.
